Reedsburg Woman Arrested for Causing Damage and Making Threats

(REEDSBURG, WI) A local woman was taken into custody on numerous charges after Reedsburg Police responded to a report of an intoxicated female acting suspicious.

Reedsburg Police were dispatched to the 200 block of South Park Street early Sunday morning around 4:34am. Officers made contact with Samantha J Day (22) of Reedsburg who was transported to a nearby hospital. Day began yelling profanities at healthcare workers and attempting to damage equipment. Day was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct.

Day damaged equipment inside a police squad during transport to Sauk County Jail. Day also made threats to harm the officer when he was not at work. Day was arrested for Disorderly Conduct, Criminal Damage to Property and Threats to a Law Enforcement Officer.
